Junior Chess Camp

Tuesday August 5 - Friday August 8, 9:30-3:30

Do you know what Kobe Bryant, Dominic Haseck, Anna Kournikova, Will Smith, Jay Z, Bill Gates, Jude Law, Ben Affleck, Christina Ricci, Salma Hayek and Carmen Kass have in common?

They all play chess.

Manitoba Chess Association – Junior Chess Camp wants to meet the future stars to rock the boards in the province this summer.

Open to all junior chess players under the age of 19

Intermediate (all day) - $175

Throughout the week chess is presented in many different ways to enhance the participants understanding and enjoyment of the game. Activities include classroom instruction, tournaments, simultaneous exhibitions, bughouse, giveaway chess, blitz tournaments, chess lectures.

Players should have some experience playing organized tournaments

Beginner (morning only) - $90

For participants with little or no chess experience to come and learn the moves and basic strategy.

Limited seating available for each section. Be sure to register early. Special pricing for siblings. Ask for details.

Instructor: Dave Ross, IM (International Master)

Chess has many benefits, improving math, reading, overall academic performance, creative and critical thinking, memory, verbal reasoning, concentration, and most of all self esteem.
